

Location

Techniques

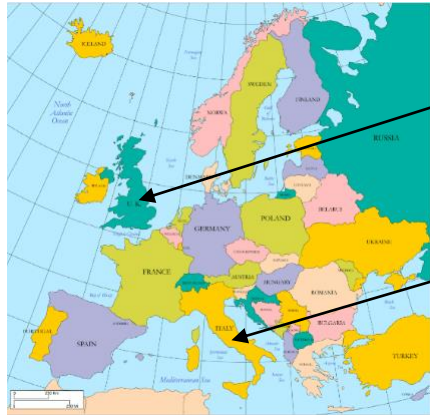

Diversity

Human features

What should I already know?

- How to locate countries using a map and atlas.
- The UK is a country in the continent of Europe.
- The 4 compass points.

The UK

Italy

Facts about Europe

It has 44 countries (with 6 other countries having land in both Asia and Europe).

Europe has a population of over 750 million people.

It is the second smallest continent.

Key vocabulary and definitions

Continent	A large area of land that can be made up of many countries.
Europe	A continent in the Northern hemisphere.
UK (United Kingdom)	The four nations of England, Scotland, Wales and Republic of Ireland (Northern Ireland).
Physical features	Natural things that are not made by humans such as: hills, rivers, valleys, mountains and forests.
Human features	Things that have been built or influenced by humans such as: roads, bridges and houses.
Population	The number of people living in an area.
Latitude	An imaginary horizontal line that tells you how north or south a place is in the world.
Land Use	How the land is used e.g farming or housing
Equator	An imaginary line around the centre of the Earth.
Northern Hemisphere	The half of the Earth that is North of the Equator.
Equator	An imaginary line that divides the planet in to the Northern and Southern hemisphere.
Climate	The long term weather pattern of an area.