

Year 3 land use and settlements of the UK

Physical features

Human
processes

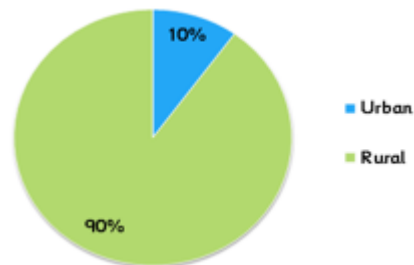

Human
features

What should I already know?

- A location is a city, town or village and if it is urban or rural.
- Some human and physical features of the UK and our local area.
- That places can change over time.

How is land used in the UK?

rural

countryside, farmland
and coasts

Urban areas are more populated than rural areas.
This means more people live in towns and cities than in the countryside.

urban

towns and cities

Key vocabulary and definitions

land use	When an area is being used for a specific purpose to meet the wants and needs of the people.
urban area	A place where lots of humans live with lots of building such houses, schools, shops and hospitals.
rural area	A place where not many people live, there are fewer homes or other buildings.
agriculture	Growing and harvesting of crops and raising livestock . It is another word for farming.
livestock farming	Breeding animals, such as cows, sheep, pigs or chickens for their meat or products.
arable farming	Land is used to grow crops such as wheat or vegetables in fields.
settlement	A place where people live and work.
transport	Different ways to travel e.g. car, lorry, aeroplane or train.
motorway	A road for fast moving traffic that links urban areas together.
populated	A place lived in by humans.

The UK can grow many things including: grass, grains (e.g. wheat and corn) flowers, fruits and vegetables. Cows, sheep, hens, pigs and goats can be raised too.