

Why is it a great subject for children to study at OJS?	Why is it a great subject to teach at OJS?	Why is it important for the children's future life?
French is a great subject to study at Overdale Junior School as it provides the opportunity to learn about French culture and French speaking countries as well as the language itself.	It is a great subject to teach as the topics are varied and engaging including learning about key French festivals. It is an opportunity for teachers and pupils to work outside of their comfort zone and have fun with learning. Lessons are well-sequenced and pronunciation guides are provided on every knowledge organiser to support teaching.	It is important to children's future life as language acquisition is a life skill that they will be able to use on holidays and/or in future careers. Learning French is also a foundation for learning further Latin languages such as Spanish and Italian.
