

Year 5 French – Spring – Breakfast

What should I already know?

- To state opinions (I like, I love, I dislike)
- To know il y a means there is/are
- Months of the year
- How to describe the weather
- The seasons
- Some conjunctions (and, but and also)
- Some prepositions (to the left, in the centre and to the right)

Grammar

Feminine and masculine (le/la and un/une)

Some (du, de or de la)

Speaking and listening

Some letters and sounds are pronounced differently to French. That means they sound differently when we speak and hear them.

"en" in French makes the "on" sound.

"au" in French makes the "oh" sound.

Key French vocabulary (English translation)

La nourriture - Food
un croissant	a croissant
un pain au chocolat	a pastry with chocolate un pain aux raisins	a pastry with raisins des céréales	some cereal une tartine	a slice of bread and butter une baguette	a French stick de beurre	butter
de la confiture	some jam
un yaourt	a yoghurt

Les boissons - Drinks
un café	a coffee
un chocolat chaud	a hot chocolate
du lait	milk
un jus d'orange	an orange juice
New Vocabulary
Pour mon petit déjeuner	For my breakfast
S'il vous plait	Please
Je voudrais	I would like avec	with beaucoup de	lots of

Reading and listening: I can recognise key words and phrases.

Speaking: I can use the correct word to determine masculine and feminine nouns.

Writing: I can link words and phrases using the correct order and conjunctions.

